

(Herald Photo)

LAST-MINUTE DETAILS... for Las Vecinas' "My Fair Lady" fashion show are being discussed by (from left) Mrs. T. R. Corazza, ways and means chairman; Mrs. Robert Pinkney, mistress of ceremonies, and Mrs. R. A. Matson, president, in a patio session around the pool at the home of the LeRoy Nashes, Eastvale Rd., Rolling Hills. The show, featuring world-famous designers, will take place in the Pacific Ballroom at the Statler April 4.

Continental Influence To Spark Las Vecinas Fashion Show April 4

New spring fashions by the famous Spanish designer, Estevez, will also be featured at the Las Vecinas "My Fair Lady" fashion show April 4 in the Pacific Ballroom at the Statler Hotel.

The roster of other famous designers to be featured includes Cassini, Don Loper, Susie Perette, Dalton sportswear, sweaters by Helft, and Cole's beachwear. Miss Rush, fashion coordinator and manager of the Helft's Shop in the Beverly Hilton Hotel, will be the commentator.

Door prize, Mrs. John Diehl, chairman; Mmes. Frank Cowles, James Jordan, R. W. Klock, J. D. Smilie, Ernest Hoyt, R. G. Stout, William Reid, Robert L. Forshee, Bruce Mapes, Gerald King, August Muizers and Carl Wolff. Decorations, Mrs. Robert Anderson, chairman; Mmes. Quinton Johnson, Burt S. Durst, Thomas Backus, Bernard Baird, Mel Hefflinger, Hewitt Coleman, Jack Hatch, George Vico, Theo Ledbetter and Fred Figliano.

Benefit prize, Mrs. Hugh Sutherland, chairman; Mmes. Eugene L. Byrd, Charles R. Barnes, Lamor Bonnette, William Creighton, Jack Hatch, William E. Jackson, Douglas Jarvis, Arthur MacKellar, Lloyd Money and Robert Zinn. Tickets, Mrs. Maurice Wilson. Special services, Mrs. Paul Roetger. Publicity, Mrs. Albert G. Koester, chairman; Mrs. Ivan E. Gilbert, Favors, Mrs. John Doyle, chairman; Mmes. Lamar Bonnette, Edward F. Fay, John W. Walti, Donald L. Meyer, Wilburn D. French, Charles R. Barnes, Robert Wilson and A. J. O'Keefe.

Garden Club

Torrance Terrace Garden met recently at the home of Mrs. Victor Benard, 1448 Engracia Ave. The door prize was won by Mrs. T. J. McCutcheon. At this meeting, plans were made for the club to visit the Descanso Gardens in La Canada in the near future.

The group enjoyed a smorgasbord at a Downey restaurant, recently after which they visited the Johnson Cactus and Succulent Gardens, the largest in the world. Each member came home with specimens of the rare plants.

TO ATTEND TEA

Mrs. Kenneth Bolter, 1318 Kornblum, will represent the South Bay Alpha Chi Omega alumnae at a silver tea at UCLA Saturday afternoon, March 30.

Barnes, Lamor Bonnette, William Creighton, Jack Hatch, William E. Jackson, Douglas Jarvis, Arthur MacKellar, Lloyd Money and Robert Zinn. Tickets, Mrs. Maurice Wilson. Special services, Mrs. Paul Roetger. Publicity, Mrs. Albert G. Koester, chairman; Mrs. Ivan E. Gilbert, Favors, Mrs. John Doyle, chairman; Mmes. Lamar Bonnette, Edward F. Fay, John W. Walti, Donald L. Meyer, Wilburn D. French, Charles R. Barnes, Robert Wilson and A. J. O'Keefe.

Torrance Herald Social World

EDNA CLOYD, Editor

MARCH 28, 1957

FA 8-5164

Eleven

Walsh-Roberts Wedding Set June 23

June 23 has been selected as their wedding day by Miss Sally Jean Walsh and Alwyn G. Roberts. The announcement of the forthcoming marriage has been made by Dr. and Mrs. James S. Walsh of Douglas, Ariz., parents of the bride-elect. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley G. Roberts, 1225 Hickory Ave., are the parents of the future bridegroom.

The wedding will be solemnized at the First Methodist Church here.

Miss Walsh has selected Miss Carolyn Davies as the maid of honor. Bridesmaids will be Mrs. Julia Gattion and Mrs. Jean Sikes. Mr. Roberts has chosen Gerald Roberts as his best man and ushers will be Jim Gattion and Bill Sikes. Miss Walsh received her early education in Douglas and received her degree in education in January, 1956 from Flagstaff State College. Since graduation she has been kindergarten teacher at the Newton school in Torrance.

The bride-elect was secretary of Alpha Mu Eta sorority and president of Arizona Playmakers' Dramatic Club at Flagstaff. She was also a member of Alpha Tau Omega dramatics fraternity and Delta Phi Alpha honorary music sorority.

Mr. Roberts was graduated from Torrance High school in 1953. He attended El Camino college for one year before entering the United States Navy for two years.

MISS SALLY JEAN WALSH
... To Wed Local Man

(Portrait by Seeman)

MRS. HARRY W. HATHAWAY

... Recites Vows

Diane Janssens Becomes Mrs. Hathaway Saturday

Approximately 250 wedding guests assembled at the Western Avenue Baptist Church last Saturday evening, March 23, to witness the ceremony uniting Miss Diane Janssens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Janssens, 1668 W. 213th St., and Harry W. Hathaway, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hathaway, 23709 Lucille Ave.

For the 8 p.m. ritual the church was decorated with baskets of white flowers and white candles. Mrs. Elaine Hathaway at the organ played the nuptial music and the wedding marches. She also accompanied Esther Howe, soloist.

Mr. Janssens escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle over white taffeta. Her fingertip veil fell from a tiara and she carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid.

Miss Caroline Janssen was her sister's maid of honor. Her gown was blue crystalline over blue taffeta and she carried a shower of pink rosebuds.

Miss Patricia Mitchell and Mrs. Robert Lenton, both in yellow crystalline and carrying yellow carnations, were the bridesmaids.

Ben Wallace served as best man and ushers were Richard Hollis, Paul Cline and Robert Lenton.

The Rev. Walter Graham officiated at the marriage. A reception was held in the social hall at the church and Mrs. Tom Eggleston registered the guests.

The young couple will make their home on Lucille Ave. in Lomita.

The bride, a graduate of Narbonne High school, was president of the Jane Addams and the Tri-Y. She is also a member of the Rainbow Girls.

Her husband was graduated from Narbonne and attended El Camino college. He is now employed at a market.

IN THE BAHAMA "FLY-IN" ... Dr. and Mrs. John W. Beeman, 1518 El Prado, are pictured here shortly after their arrival in their own plane at the West End, Grand Bahama, for the third annual meeting of the Flying Physicians Association at the Grand Bahama Club. Flying doctors and their wives from over the entire United States, British Columbia, Ontario, and Nova Scotia participated. During their three day stay at the year round resort, they attended medical meetings, fished for wahoo, bone, barracuda and marlin and relaxed on the beautiful secluded beaches.

Story on Page 12.

MRS. ROBERT H. SMITH
... To Reside Here

JOIN FLYING PHYSICIANS ON CARIBBEAN TREK

The calypso countries and the romance of the Caribbean have been enjoyed tremendously by Dr. and Mrs. John Beeman who arrived home Sunday afternoon from two weeks in that area.

Boarding their own Bellanca, they flew to Boulder, Colo., where they stopped for a visit with their daughter, Janel, student at the university there. Then they were off to Miami to attend the Flying Physicians of America convention there. In the party were 101 private planes with 208 convention members.

They flew to the Bahamas and back to Fort Lauderdale. Their next jaunt was to Havana, arriving only two days after the revolution. The local couple then flew to Jamaica where they were guests of Norman Marsteller, formerly of Torrance. After two days in Jamaica they flew to Veradero Beach in Cuba, leaving there last Friday for California.

REHWOLDT'S IN ST. LOUIS, MO.

Dr. and Mrs. Walter Rehwoldt of Barstow, formerly of Torrance, are now in St. Louis, Mo., where Dr. Rehwoldt is acting as a resource person for a study group at the National Association of Supervisors and Curriculum Development conference. Dr. Rehwoldt is also hiring teachers for Barstow.

Enroute home, Dr. and Mrs. Rehwoldt will visit with friends and relatives in Iowa and Colorado.

MISS BENSTEAD AT OHIO CONVENTION

Miss Vera Benstead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Benstead of the CWOOD Lease, Torrance, and principal of the Anza school, was selected to represent the administrators of the Wiseburn School District at the national convention now in session at Cincinnati, Ohio. Miss Benstead left by plane last Saturday. After the convention she will visit family friends in Windsor, Ontario, Canada, returning to Torrance next Sunday.

Bridge Party

Yellow jonquils, fragrant violet and lavender stock created a festive atmosphere for the bridge party Wednesday evening by Mrs. T. R. Corazza, 547 Calle Mayor.

Dessert and coffee were served first, followed by an evening of bridge. Those present included Mmes. John Fincher, Otto Lee, John Hearn, Ralph Rector, Ted Brox, Ivan McElroy, Ronald Montgomery and the hostess.

Slack-Fitzgerald Rites Read in Church Service

Wearing a ballerina length gown of embroidered lace and net over satin, Miss Mary Ann Slack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Slack, 2364 230th St., walked down the aisle of the First Christian Church in San Pedro on Sunday afternoon, March 23, at 3 o'clock to exchange her wedding vows with Daniel Lloyd Fitzgerald, son of Mrs. Bell Nilson of Long Beach and D. H. Fitzgerald of Lomita.

The bride came to the altar on the arm of her father. Her fingertip lace-edged veil fell from a lace and pearl tiara and she carried a small white Bible topped with white orchids and lilies of the valley.

The Rev. T. Ferguson officiated at the double ring candle-light ceremony as the church organist played a medley of wedding music. Karan Brunel sang "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mrs. Sally South served as the honor attendant wearing a yellow crystalline gown and carrying yellow carnations. Misses Gail Horvet and Miss Mary Coleman, in lavender crystalline and carrying pink carnations, were the bridesmaids.

Just ahead of the bride was little Louise Markel, in a gown identical to the bride's, as flower girl.

The rings were carried on a white satin pillow by Steven Markel.

Bill South stood as best man and ushers were Danny and Delbert Slack.

After the wedding the 150 guests were entertained at a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride, who is a senior at Narbonne, will continue to reside with her parents until after graduation.

The bridegroom is a Narbonne graduate and is now serving with the United States Navy stationed in San Diego where his bride will join him

(Portrait by Seeman)

MRS. DANIEL L. FITZGERALD
... On Wedding Day